

When reactivating an ERES course:

▶ ERES documents must comply with Fair Use and Copyright.

▶ Link to Fair Use checklist:

http://www.copyright.com/Services/copyrightoncampus/basics/fairuse_list.html

▶ Copyright and reuse of Copyrighted Material:

"Copyrighted material can be used on reserves without permission for one semester only. Permission from the publisher will be required for any subsequent uses of the material."

▶ Articles that are full-text in our Databases should not be posted to ERES. You can use the A-Z Electronic Journal List, found in our "Databases by Title" list.

▶ Course Reserves Form has been revised and is available online at:

<http://www.widener.edu/Media/Website%20Resources/docs/library/eresrequest2010.pdf>

This form must be completed, each semester, before any item can be placed on reserve. Please return the completed form to the Reserve Desk in the library.

If you have any questions contact: Susan Tsiouris sctsiouris@widener.edu or 610-499-4069.