Collection Management Policy

The mission of the Widener University Sexuality Archives is to collect, preserve and make available to researchers; historical and archival materials related to the history of Sexology and Sexuality Education in the United States as well as Widener's Human Sexuality Education program.

The Widener University Sexuality Archives Collection Development Policy serves to more specifically identify the types of records determined to be of permanent and historical value:

- Books both popular/mass-market and academic titles (including rare first editions and editions signed by the author)
- Periodicals (including journals/magazines/newsletters)
- Pamphlets
- Audiovisual Materials (including VHS tapes, DVDs, 16 mm Films, Filmstrips)
- Personal papers (the personal papers and collected works of sexologists, sexuality educators, and sex therapists)
- Sexuality Education and Family Life Education Curricula
- Sexuality related ephemera
- Sexuality related/erotic art

Updated: June 3, 2015