

CARLA BARQUEIRO

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

- International relations scholar
- Experienced undergraduate and graduate teaching in the USA, Canada, and the UK in political science and international relations on political and international relations theory, research methods, global governance, human security, and US foreign policy, comparative politics, and Latin America
- Non-profit sector and government sector experience
- Published author on the prevention of human insecurity-related issues
- Regional research and policy experience on Europe, Africa, Latin America, Canada, and the US
- Fluency in English and French, with basic proficiency in Spanish and Portuguese

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. International Politics, Aberystwyth University (2004-2009), Aberystwyth, UK
Successfully Defended: May 9, 2009
PhD Supervisors: Michael C. Williams, University of Ottawa; William Bain, National University of Singapore
- M.A. Sociology, McGill University (2003-2004), Montreal, Canada
Graduated: October 31, 2004
MA Supervisors: Elaine Weiner, McGill University; and John A. Hall, McGill University
- B.A. Sociology, McGill University (1999-2002), Montreal, Canada
Graduated: October 31, 2002

EXTERNAL SERVICE POSITIONS

2017-present: Academic Reviewer, Journal of Human Security

2017-present: Board Member, Board of Governors, International Studies Association-Northeast

2015-present: Academic Opinion-Editorial Contributor, The Hill, <https://thehill.com/>

2015-present: Academic Reviewer, Politics and Governance

INTERNAL SERVICE POSITIONS

2022-present: Faculty Co-Coordinator, Social Science Colloquium, Widener University

2022-present: Faculty Representative, Social Science Curriculum & Planning Committee, Widener University

2022-present: Faculty Representative, Social Science Library Committee, Widener University

2021-2022: Faculty Co-Lead, Graduate Program Workshops, Department of Political Science, JHU

2021-2022: Faculty Graduate Program Administrator/Coordinator, Department of Political Science, JHU

2021-2022: Faculty Participant in “Lunch & Learn” Sessions on Inclusive Teaching, JHU

2019: Served on Pearl Simon Committee, Goucher College

2019: Presented at Goucher College “Munch and Meet” Session

2019-2020: Awarded Faculty Research Grant, $3500, Kinship in IR

2018-2019: Ran IR Faculty Mock Courses for Gopher Days (with prospective student visitors), Goucher College

2018-2019: Participate in New Faculty Institute Sessions, Goucher College

2018-2019: Goucher College Faculty Representative for 3 Theses Committees (IR Majors)

2018-2020: Goucher College Faculty Mentor for undergraduate IR majors

2018: Faculty Representative for University of Baltimore Work Life Committee

2017: Faculty Representative for University of Baltimore Honors Committee

2015-2017: Co-Chair, Faculty Work Life Committee, University of Baltimore

2013-2014: (deferred 2015-2016): Co-Principal Investigator with Dr. Alan Lyles for the awarded 2014-2015 (deferred to 2015-2016) University of Baltimore Foundation Fund for Excellence Grant: “Latin American Studies at the University of Baltimore: International Lecture Series & Student Experiential Learning and Research.”

2014: Co-lead with Dr. Alan Lyles of the Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence (SIR) Award

2014: Committee Member of the Laurence Short Academic Award for International Students

2013-present: Faculty Administrator (along with Dr. Sascha Sheehan) for the Global Affairs and Human Security Student's Association (GAHSA), College of Public Affairs

2013-2018: Faculty Thesis Committee Member for 5 Doctorate of Public Administration students

2013: Faculty Representative for UB Judicial Hearing Committee

2013: Faculty Organizer for the Student Trip to the United Nations in New York in February 2013

2012-2013: Search Committee Member for the Conflict Negotiation and Conflict Management Assistant Professor and Open Rank Faculty Position Searches, College of Public Affairs

2013-2014: Search Committee Member for the Global Affairs and Human Security/NGO Management and Social Entrepreneurship Open Rank Faculty Position Search, College of Public Affairs

2012: New faculty speaker at the CELTT Teaching and Learning Day on November 9, 2012

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Widener University

Department of Political Science

Chester, PA

August 2022-Present

Assistant Professor, Political Science and International Relations

- Teaching undergraduate courses in political science and international relations, including:

- Foreign Governments and Politics
- Current Issues in World Politics
- Globalization and Social Change
- Gender, Women, and War
- Genocide & Human Insecurity
- International Relations Theory

In development:

- Introduction to Latin American Politics
- Black Political Thought
- Undertaking research in international relations, and presenting research at international workshops and conferences
- Mentoring and advising undergraduate political science majors
- Participating in student recruitment and community-building activities, including open days, site visits, family weekends, and social events
- Participating in faculty and department meetings
- Faculty representative to several Social Science committees

Johns Hopkins University

Department of Political Science

Baltimore, MD

August 2021-August 2022

Lecturer in Political Science

- Teaching undergraduate courses in international relations, including:
 - Human Security
- Undertaking research in international relations, and presenting research at international workshops and conferences
- Working with Director of Graduate Studies to coordinate the graduate program in political science, including managing open days and campus visits (virtual and in-person), assisting with new enrollment, overseeing funding and fellowships, and coordinating teaching assistantships
- Collating graduate student data for university and department oversight and decision-making
- Leading graduate student workshops on thesis-writing, conference presentations, undergraduate pedagogy

Goucher College, Baltimore, MD, USA

Department of Political Science and International Relations

Center for People, Politics, and Markets

July 2018-August 2020

Visiting Assistant Professor of International Relations

- Taught undergraduate courses in political science and international relations in the undergraduate Political Science and International Relations program, including:
 - Approaches to International Relations
 - Comparative Politics
 - Human Rights, Democracy, and Regionalism in Latin America
 - Gender, Women, and War
 - Seminar in Human Security
 - Seminar in Responding to Mass Atrocities
 - Capstone Seminar in International Relations Theory
- Served on undergraduate theses committees for several senior undergraduates (political science and international relations majors)
- Mentored undergraduate IR majors
- Participated in student recruitment and community-building activities, including open days, site visits, family weekends, and social events
- Participated in faculty and department meetings
- Conducted international relations program assessment exercise, reviewed student learning outcomes and program objectives
- Conducted research on human security issues, including the prevention of mass atrocities and genocide and responsibility to protect, and kinship and international relations, with ongoing research partnerships with students

University of Baltimore, Baltimore, MD, USA

School of Public and International Affairs

September 2012-July 2018

Assistant Professor, International Studies/Global Affairs and Human Security

- Taught undergraduate courses in International Studies, and graduate courses in the M.A in Global Affairs and Human Security, including:
 - Security Studies
 - International Organization
 - Globalization and Social Change
 - Human Security Capstone
 - Women and War
 - Introduction to Latin American Studies
- Developed experiential learning opportunities, including cross-listed Latin American Studies course with trip to Mexico undertaken in summer 2016
- Served as student mentor, and faculty representative for the Global Affairs and Human Security Student Association (GAHSA)
- Served on five doctoral committees in Public Administration, and all master's in Global Affairs and Human Security committees
- Conducted research on human rights and human security issues, including the prevention of mass atrocities and genocide and responsibility to protect
- Served as a faculty member in several internal university committees and external professional associations
- Participated in student recruitment activities, including open days and site visits

Permanent Mission of Canada to the Organization of American States, Hemispheric Policy Unit, Embassy of Canada, Washington, DC, USA

January 2011-July 2012

Americas Engagement Coordinator

- Led and coordinated engagement with the academic, think tank, and policy community in Washington, DC and in Canada to further the mission's interaction with non-state actors on hemispheric policy issues; and report on ongoing academic and policy research on the Inter-American Human Rights System and citizen security

- Researched and provided input on issues related to Canada's Americas Strategy pillars, particularly on issues related to threats to citizen security from transnational organized crime in Central America, Mexico, and the Caribbean
- Organized and coordinated high-level visits and meetings between foreign officials from the region and Canada's Minister of State of Foreign Affairs (Americas and Consular Affairs) and members of civil society
- Drafted and consolidated talking points and key messages for Ministers and Deputy Ministers, as well as other high-level Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs officials, on Canada's Americas Strategy and Canada's engagement in Latin America and the Caribbean
- Drafted, edited, and coordinated briefing material for Canada's Prime Minister, Minister of State of Foreign Affairs (Americas and Consular Affairs) and other high-level officials for multilateral meetings, conferences, and summits across Latin America and the Caribbean, Canada, and US
- Managed staff and directed large projects geared towards regional policy development between advocacy groups, academics, private sector representatives, and high-level government officials
- Co-coordinated and supervised the mission's interns on projects, event planning, reporting, and other research
- Served as Embassy of Canada mentor to new staff members to aid in the enhancement of their professional development

The Fund for Peace (FfP), Washington, DC, USA

January 2011-January 2012

Senior Fellow

- Attended FfP events and provided academic expertise on publications and research projects as they related to human rights, the prevention of genocide, transnational threats, and identity-based violence
- Researched and drafted project funding proposals, provided counsel on potential funding opportunities, and consulted on FfP proposals being submitted
- Provided consultation on key areas of research to FfP President, including on future focus of identity-based violence-themed projects

Montreal Institute for Genocide and Human Rights Studies (MIGS), CANADA

December 2008-September 2009 (2010 for publication)

Researcher & Writer

- Managed program direction, budget, and timeline for completion of the Will to Intervene (W2I) Project
- Created outline for policy report and case study analyses of Rwanda and Kosovo, and contemporary abuses in Sudan and DRC
- Conducted interviews with members of Congress and Parliament, officials from the executive branches, intelligence specialists, military personnel, policy-makers, scholars, NGO representatives, and journalists
- Analyzed US foreign policy from the Department of State, memos and reports from the Department of Defense and the National Security Council, compiling information from the National Security Archive and other sources
- Organized and participated in a series of workshops and presentations at MIGS to government officials, academics, and NGO leaders
- Monitored congressional calendar, appropriations budget, resolutions, and legislation dealing with mass human rights violations around the globe
- Researched human rights and humanitarian law and policy towards the protection of people from mass atrocities, and contemporary abuses in Sudan, Northern Uganda, Liberia, DRC, and Sri Lanka
- Researched the convergence of threats in failed states, including public health threats, terrorism, and mass human rights abuses
- Co-authored W2I report
- Organized W2I report launch and panel discussion at USIP, Washington DC in September 2009

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) Human Security in Cities Policy, Liu

Centre for the Study of Global Issues, Vancouver, CANADA

December 2007-March 2008

Policy Consultant

- Researched and wrote a policy paper on the ‘protection gap’ in international law toward children in endemic urban violence in Brazil’s favelas as a Human Security Research and Outreach Program (HSROP) PhD Graduate Research Award recipient for 2007/2008
- Participated in DFAIT ‘Fast Talk’ with experts and government officials to direct government human security policy
- Participated in conference dialogue led by the Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) and the Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS)
- Reviewed submitted papers by other graduate students
- Presented policy paper to DFAIT, NGO representatives, UN personnel, and attending scholars
- Submitted short version of paper for policy publication

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) Human Security in Cities Policy, Liu Centre for the Study of Global Issues, Vancouver, CANADA
March 2006-June 2006

Policy Consultant

- Researched and wrote a policy paper on children in endemic urban violence in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo as a PhD Graduate Research Award recipient for 2006/2007
- Participated in conference dialogue led by the Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) and the Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS)
- Presented policy paper to DFAIT, NGO representatives, UN personnel, and attending scholars
- Participated in formulation of human security policy
- Collaborated with conference delegates and experts from academia, policy-making, and NGOs
- Submitted paper for online publication

Department of International Politics, University of Wales, Aberystwyth; Aberystwyth, UK
October 2004-June 2006

Teaching Assistant

- Taught four seminars a week for three honors courses in the department of International Politics:
 - Humanitarian Intervention in World Politics
 - Russian Politics since 1953
 - Intelligence and International Security
- Organized seminar curriculum for all three courses
- Graded final exams and essays
- Held office hours for student questions
- Provided advising for undergraduates
- Coordinated student attendance

Department of International Politics, University of Wales, Aberystwyth; Aberystwyth, UK
October 2004-December 2004

Research Assistant

- Researched trust-building in international relations for Professor Ken Booth and Professor Nicholas J. Wheeler for their 2006 publication, Security Dilemma: Fear, Cooperation, and Trust in World Politics
- Prepared literature reviews on approaches to trust and their application to three case studies: Israel-Palestine, Northern Ireland, and Kashmir

Department of Sociology, McGill University, Montreal, CANADA
September 2003-June 2004

Teaching Assistant

- Taught four seminars a week for two undergraduate courses in the department of Sociology:
 - Urban Sociology
 - War, States, and Social Change
- Organized seminar curriculum for all three courses
- Graded final exams and essays
- Held office hours for student questions
- Provided advising for undergraduates

- Coordinated student attendance

PUBLICATIONS

Books

Chalk, Frank, and Romeo Dallaire, Kyle Matthews, Carla Barqueiro, & Simon Doyle. (2010). Mobilizing the Will to Intervene: Leadership to Prevent Mass Atrocities. Montreal: McGill-Queen's University Press.

Book Chapters

Barqueiro, Carla. (2018). "When Outsiders Are Threats: How to Move beyond a Culture of Fear to a Shared Sense of Humanity", in Samuel Totten (ed) Last Lectures on the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide. NY: Routledge.

Journal Articles

Barqueiro, Carla, and Kate Seaman, and KT Towey. (2016). "Regional Organizations and Responsibility to Protect: Normative Reframing or Normative Change?", Politics and Governance 4(3): 37-49.

Barqueiro, Carla. (2021). "Dehumanizing R2P: Preventing Mass Atrocities without Human Security?", Journal of Human Security (accepted).

Barqueiro, Carla (2021). "Kinship and Human Security: Whose Security Matters in International Relations?", Cooperation and Conflict (submitted).

Policy Papers

Barqueiro, Carla. "Children in Endemic Urban Violence: Human Security and the 'Protection Gap.'" Ottawa: DFAIT, 2008.

Barqueiro, Carla. "Human Security: An Examination of Urban Violent Crime in Rio de Janeiro & São Paulo." Ottawa: DFAIT, 2006.

Media

Barqueiro, Carla (March 10, 2016) "What the US can learn from Canada", The Hill, Opinion-Editorial <http://thehill.com/blogs/pundits-blog/international/272440-what-the-us-can-learn-from-canada>

Barqueiro, Carla & Katherine Teresa Towey (November 20, 2015) "Paris Attacks Should Strengthen US Resolve to Accept More Refugees", The Hill, Opinion-Editorial, <http://thehill.com/blogs/pundits-blog/international/260872-paris-attacks-should-strengthen-us-resolve-to-accept-more>

Interviewed for article written by Siata Swaray (December 17, 2015) "Fem-Leader: Dr. Carla Barqueiro: Professor, Researcher and Human Security Scholar", Illuminessence

<http://illuminessencemag.com/fem-leader-dr-carla-barqueiro-professor-researcher-human-security-scholar/>

Coverage of my ISA-HR presentation and others, Nehit Celik (November 1, 2014) "Conference: ISA Joint Conference on Human Rights, Istanbul", Turkish Review, http://www.turkishreview.org/reviews-briefs/conference-isa-human-rights-joint-conference-istanbul_541075

CONFERENCES & PRESENTATIONS

International Studies Association NE Branch Conference, Baltimore, MD (November 2022-upcoming)

Presenting Co-authored paper, with Dr. Kate Seaman, "Covid 19 and Migration: Exploring Threat Discourse and Human Insecurity in a Pandemic World"

Chair/Discussant for "Repression and State Power" Panel

War Studies Research Group, Inaugural Speaker, York St. John University, UK (December, 2021)

Presented discussion entitled "Human Experiences of War" as Inaugural Speaker

International Studies Association NE Branch Conference, Providence, RI (November, 2019)

Presented co-authored paper with student Chris Mayhew, and Dr. Kate Seaman, "Examining the Relationship between Kinship, International Relations, and State Repression", and Chaired the "Digital Governance in the 21st Century" panel

International Studies Association Annual Conference, Toronto, ON, CANADA (March, 2019)

Presented paper coauthored with student Wondemneh Pawlose and Dr. Kate Seaman "Humanizing R2P Preventative Action: Empowering Victim and Witness Advocates", and Chaired "Governing Surplus Populations in Global Capitalism" panel

Goucher College, Center for People, Politics, and Markets Research Talk, Baltimore, MD, USA (March 2019)

Presented co-authored paper with student Wondemneh Pawlose on “Humanizing R2P Preventative Action: Empowering Victim and Witness Advocates”, and general research agenda

International Studies Association-NE Branch Conference, Baltimore, MD (November, 2018)

Presented paper “Normative Action in the Face of Mass Atrocities?” and Chair/Discussant for “Framing Mass Atrocities: Actors, Actions, and Discourses” panel

International Studies Association NE Branch Conference, Baltimore, MD (November, 2016)

Presented co-authored research paper “The Responsibility to Protect: Bridging the Gap between Norm Localization and Universality”

Western Political Science Association (WPSA) Human Rights Conference, San Diego, CA (March 24-26, 2016)

Presented co-authored research paper “Regional Approaches to the Responsibility to Protect: Divergences in application of R2P in Syria and Libya”

International Studies Association Annual Conference, New Orleans, LA, February (February 18-21, 2015)

Presented research paper “Human Security Norms: Global Acceptance and Regional Divergence”

International Studies Association Human Rights Conference Istanbul, Turkey (June 16-18, 2014)

Presented research paper “The Responsibility to Lament: Human Rights and the Arab Spring”

International Studies Association Annual Conference, San Francisco, CA (04/2013)

ISA Member Panelist and Participant

International Studies Association NE Branch Conference, Baltimore, MD (11/2012)

ISA Member Panelist and Participant

Concordia University, Montreal, QC, Canada: Book Launch (10/2010)

Presented with co-authors at the McGill-Queen’s book launch of the now titled: “Mobilizing the Will to Intervene: Leadership to Prevent Mass Atrocities”

United States Institute of Peace, Washington, DC, USA: launch of W2I MIGS Policy Report (09/2009)

Panel Included: Roméo Dallaire, John Prendergast, Michael Gerson, James Traub to discuss W2I policy report I co-authored: “Mobilizing the Will to Intervene: Leadership and Action to Prevent Mass Atrocities”

Liu Institute for the Study of Global Issues, Vancouver, BC, Canada: Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) & Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) Human Security in Cities Conference (03/2008)

Presented Paper as the recipient of the Human Security Research Outreach Program PhD Graduate Research Award 2007/2008: “Children in Endemic Urban Violence: Human Security and the ‘Protection Gap’”

University of Wales, Aberystwyth, Aberystwyth, UK: International Politics Research Seminar (03/2007)

Presented PhD Thesis chapters I-IV to the Department of International Politics
“Canada’s Human Security Foreign Policy: Illuminating the Role of Ideas in Soft Power”

Cork University, Cork, Ireland: British International Studies Association (BISA) Conference (12/2006)

Human Security Panel Convener and Presenter: “Humanizing Security or Securitizing Humanity? Human Security in a post 9/11 World”

University of Essex; Essex, UK: European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR) Postgraduate Conference (09/2006)

Presented research paper on human security as imperative to national security and the national interest

“Bringing the state back in within a broader security approach: Human Security and the Role of the State”

University of British Columbia, Liu Institute for Global Issues, Vancouver, BC, Canada: Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) & Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Human Security in Cities Conference (DFAIT) (06/2006)

Presented a paper as a recipient of the Human Security in Cities Graduate Research Award 2006/2007

“Human Security: An Examination of Urban Violent Crime in Rio de Janeiro & São Paulo”

University of Wales, Aberystwyth, Aberystwyth, UK: Postgraduate Conference (01/2006)

Presented a paper on soft /hard power and national/human security: “Dichotomies of Power and Security”

Oxford University, Oxford, UK: Sovereignty and Its Discontents (SAID) (10/2005)

Delegate for the security panel on threat convergence, including failed states, terrorism, and human rights abuses

McGill University, Montreal, QC, Canada: Masters Colloquium (04/2004)

Presented research paper on peace support operations undertaken the post-Cold War: “Peace support operations: the post-Cold War dilemma”