THIS SUMMER AT WIDENER

THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR IN CHESTER COUNTY

One-week class, Widener Campus | Tuesday, May 26 | 11:30 AM | Registration $10

This lecture explores Chester County's role in the Revolutionary War. The focus will be on the Battle of Brandywine, Washington's defense of Philadelphia, and the local landscape where national history unfolded. Participants will learn how events in this region shaped the broader struggle for independence. The lecture offers a local perspective on the Revolutionary War.

AMERICA 250: UNCOMMON HEROES

One-week class, Widener Campus | Tuesday, June 2 | 11:30 AM | Registration $10

This lecture shares stories of lesser-known men and women whose courage, sacrifice, and service shaped American history. The focus will be on people whose actions may not always appear in traditional history books but still have made a lasting impact. Participants will hear compelling stories that connect individual choices to larger historical moments. The lecture reminds us that ordinary people often play extraordinary roles in history.
